

Library Show 2017

We will be showcasing some of our quilts at the Middletown Library the month of May, 2017. This show enables us to show our work to the community who would not necessarily go to a quilt show. It is a venue to spread the word about our craft, our guild and the park.

Due to space constraints, we will limit the number of quilts to 30 – first come first serve. The quilts should not be your new or cherished quilts. Please save the new ones for our guild show, and keep in mind that the quilts will be hanging unsupervised (although we have never had a problem).

I will have entry forms at the meetings and in the newsletter. Entry forms are due back to me by April 1, 2016.

Looking forward to another great exhibit this year. It is always interesting to see the variety of quilts that we show. I sure it is interesting to those not familiar with our work that what we make are not always what their preconceived idea of a quilt is.
